

Unit 3.1: Racism

Worksheet A

Fill-in-the-blank

Match the following key terms from Unit 3.1 to the correct situation or definition 1–8. This activity is an opportunity to demonstrate your understanding of the key terms in this unit. As well as making sure that you know these terms, you should also be able to use them in your speaking and writing.

Key terms

racism	xenophobia	white privilege	post-racist
stereotype	apartheid	racial profiling	positive discrimination

- _____ is the historical term that refers to the system of racial segregation in South Africa from 1948 to 1994.
- _____ is the act of targeting a person based on a racial stereotype.
- _____ is the fear of people who are perceived as different.
- _____ is a widely held but fixed and oversimplified image or idea of a person.
- _____ is a policy that aims to help people who have been discriminated against, often by offering them job opportunities.
- _____ is a term for the structural advantages that are enjoyed by white people in a society.
- _____ is the act of discrimination against someone on the basis of their race.
- _____ is a world where race no longer plays a role in work, politics and education.