

After graduating from the University of Cambridge, Janet Barrow worked to Vice President level in international finance, before becoming Treasurer of World Wildlife Fund International. There she orchestrated groundbreaking debt-for-nature swaps. She has 15 years' experience teaching IB, IGCSE, A Level and Advanced Placement Economics, Business, Biology, Mathematics, Thinking Skills, TOK and a number of other subjects. A Mensa member, she enjoys the variety and challenge of a wide subject range. She founded The Tutor College, which provides personalised content and technique preparation to students needing to maximise marks for university entry. She regularly teaches IB revision courses for Oxford Study Courses Ltd.
